Dear Vic,

Just a brief note to say thank you. I've been walking our production floor a lot this week and several of our workers stopped me to say thank you for switching vendors on our vinyl. They say the improvement in quality and dimensional stability is very noticeable and it makes their jobs much easier.

Having been in the replacement window industry for over forty years I've got to say this is the first time my employees have thanked me for our choice of vendors. Your quality and service have been terrific.

Wayne
